Informs that the advance is inadmissible.

Serial No.

Letter no 288 of 19th Oct 36 from the meteorologist praying for the grant of an advance of Rs 1700/- for the improvement of his house

4 An advance of Rs 3150/- was sanctioned to Mr C. Seshachar, meteorologist × Gr. for the purchase of a house (Vide G.O. No 76 × 34-6-36 dt 24.6.36). The officer now requests for the grant of a second advance of Rs 1700/- for the improvement of the house.

The request amounts to the grant of a second advance which is intended to improve the house on which the first advance was spent. Such advances for improving houses have been refused in the cases of Messrs K.S. Narayana Rao and D. Subbiah vide G.O. Dept 523-33 placed below

P. Submitted for orders.

Mr. Seshachar could have drawn one year's × salary at the time he applied for advance to purchase a house. But he applied for only 9 months' pay which amounted to Rs 3150/- which was sanctioned. He however drew only Rs 2500/- which is said to have been fully repaid.

He now applies for an advance of Rs 1700, which represents the balance of one year's pay which is all that is allowed for purchase of houses. This extra amount is said to be required for improving the house.

No advances are given for improvement of houses. But in view of the fact that he has drawn only Rs 2500 against Rs 3100/ sanctioned in 1933 & against Rs 4,200 which is one year's advance of pay, his request may be considered favourably.

If it be considered that he may be shown concession, he may be allowed Rs 1650 being the balance of the advance sanctioned to him or Rs 1,700 the balance of one year's advance which he might have drawn, as a special case.

This is a second advance applied for by the Meteorologist for effecting improvements to the house for the purchase of which an advance was previously drawn by him. According to Article 161 M.J.A.C., Vol. I., no advance is admissible for effecting improvements to a house, and advances asked for by others for this purpose were refused previously (G.F. Dep 823 of 1935). The facts that the officer did not apply for the full advance admissible in the first instance and did not draw the full amount sanctioned do not constitute valid grounds for the grant of a second advance for effecting improvements to the house, after three years, as it is not obligatory for Government to give or for the officer to draw the maximum admissible under the rules. The advance need not therefore be sanctioned.
